

Stories of Aboriginal Women and Young Girls in Sport Grassroots, National and International Level

Please submit a short story of your sport experiences, minimum two pages or maximum four pages, double-spaced.

First Name: _____

Last Name: _____ Age _____

Mailing Address: _____

Home PH: _____ Cell PH: _____

Email address: _____

When writing your story, reflect on the following questions.

1. Where are you originally from? First Nation, Metis or Inuit community.
2. What sports do you play? What is your main sport?
3. How old were you when you started playing sports? Who helped support you along the way?
4. What barriers (difficulties) did you encounter and how did you overcome them?
5. What are your favourite things that you like about your sport? Who was your inspiration?
6. Other thoughts that you would like to add. (ie. Have you coached a sport, etc)
7. What would you say to other young girls who want to play sports? One or two sentences. (One last note that you want to "inspire" others to think about)

I am collecting stories to inspire young Aboriginal girls to stay in school and play sports. If you would like to be involved in this collection of stories, please email, text or call me for more information and clarification. Deadline: Friday, March 31, 2017.

Colleen Charles (306) 420.0872

E: colleen.charles@usask.ca

Facebook: Colleen Charles (picture of an abstract painting)