

Athlete of the Month Award

The Athlete of the Month Award is presented for outstanding performance in a month.

Nomination Criteria

- The Athlete of the Month Award is open to teams and individuals who perform solo or as part of a team.
- A “team” is defined as a number of persons associated together in an activity. This includes all-star teams and contingents competing in individual disciplines in which there is a recognized team award.
- To be eligible, athletes must:
 - Participate in a sport which is a recognized active member of Sask Sport Inc.
 - Be amateur in status as defined by their provincial sport organizations.
 - Make their primary residence in Saskatchewan. Athletes who live temporarily in other locations for educational or training purposes and are products of our sport development system are also eligible as are athletes who are originally from other provinces provided their primary residence is declared as being from Saskatchewan.
- Nominations are made by active and affiliate members of Sask Sport Inc.
- Active and affiliate members are only allowed to nominate one athlete or team per month.
- An athlete or team may only win this award once per calendar year.
- The specific nomination deadline date will be communicated in the reminder notice, which is sent monthly (normally within the first 5 working days).
- The Awards and Recognition Committee will review all nominations and determine the award recipient. The decisions of the Awards and Recognition Committee are final.
- The award recipient receives a plaque of achievement and all nominees receive a certificate of achievement. The recipient and nominees are announced through a media release.
